

Grain and General Services Union
Scholarship Program

2010

GUIDELINES

GSU is offering five $2,000 scholarships in 2010.

Elected officers at the GSU 2010 Policy Convention made exciting changes to the GSU scholarship program.

Annual scholarship amounts doubled to $2,000 and two new scholarships were opened up for current members of the union.

Scholarship program summary:

- Scholarships are available to all GSU members and their immediate families.
- Scholarship applicants must be enrolled in a diploma, degree, or certificate program at a community college, university, trade school, or technical institute as a full-time student in any country.
- Five $2,000 scholarships are available.
- There are three dependant scholarships and two GSU member scholarships available.
- Dependant scholarships are available for dependant children of GSU members. Applicants for dependant scholarships must be age 25 or younger.
- GSU member scholarships are available for GSU members.
- GSU members must have a signed union card on file with the union to be eligible for GSU scholarships.

- If there are no member scholarship applications, all five scholarships will be available to be awarded to eligible dependant applicants.
- Students can apply every year.
- Students will be awarded a maximum of one scholarship per lifetime.
- The GSU scholarship committee will meet over the summer to determine the successful scholarship recipients.
- Scholarship applicants will be advised of the committee's decision by September 15.

How to apply:

Complete either the dependant or the member application form and return it to Grain and General Services Union with the following items:

1. A letter of recommendation from a non-family member describing how your participation in school, extra-curricular, and/or community activities make you a strong candidate for a GSU scholarship.
2. A copy of a document from your training institute which confirms your registration.
3. Your one- to two-page essay on the following topic: "Why should I worry when governments attack and weaken Unions?"

Send your completed scholarship application form, letter of recommendation, essay, and proof of admission to:
