

GSU Scholarship Recipients 2006/2007

Grain Services Union's scholarship committee of Mike Raine, Mandy Windecker, and Brendon Sayers was faced with many applicants and difficult decisions to determine the 2006/2007 scholarship recipients. Recipients were selected based on extra-curricular and community activities, references, and an essay. The winning applicants are listed below.

Congratulations to our scholarship recipients and thank you to everyone who applied. Good luck in your studies!

Bill Gilbey Memorial Scholarship

Brenna Peterson

Brenna graduated from Melfort and Unit Comprehensive Collegiate. After graduation, she completed her Teaching English as a Foreign Language course through the University of Saskatchewan and moved to China to teach English for one year. She is currently attending her second year of Commerce at the University of Calgary. Upon completion of her studies Brenna hopes to spend time travelling.

Brenna's parents are Rod and Sheryn Peterson. Rod is a scale technician for SWP and Sheryn is a social worker.

The Bill Gilbey Memorial Scholarship is open to children of Union members or members in all locals.

Henry Lamontagne Scholarship

Natasha Briere

Natasha grew up in Swift Current and graduated in June 2006 from the Swift Current Comprehensive High School. She was active in school activities throughout high school and was the SRC President in her Grade 12 year. Natasha is attending the University of Calgary where she hopes to obtain a degree in Commerce and then go on to study law.

Natasha's parents are Claude and Shelley Briere. Claude has worked with Saskatchewan Wheat Pool for 30 years.

The Henry Lamontagne Scholarship is open to members or children of members of Sub-Locals 1A and 1B (SWP) only.

Barry Melz Memorial Scholarship

Amanda Campbell

Amanda is in her third year of a Secondary Education degree, with a major in Physical Education and a minor in Special Education. After graduating from Three Hills High School in Three Hills, Alberta, she attended two years of college at Red Deer College in their Education transfer program. After completing two years in Red Deer, Amanda transferred to the University of Alberta to complete her degree.

Amanda's parents Doug and Michele Campbell work for AgPro in Trochu.

The Barry Melz Memorial Scholarship is open to children of Union members or members in Units other than Sub-Locals 1A and 1B.

First Nations University of Canada Bursary

Jada Yee

"I would like to thank you for choosing me for this scholarship. Being a recipient drives me harder to excel in my studies. Although this year has been a challenging year for the First Nations University of Canada and its students, your contribution is greatly appreciated and it proves that we, as a team are moving forward in the right direction.

On behalf of my family and the First Nations University of Canada, I say "Thank You."

The First Nations University of Canada Bursary is awarded to an Aboriginal student enrolled in a minimum of 12 credit hours and at the First National University of Canada (FNUC). Applicants must have successfully completed a minimum of 30 credit hours to a maximum of 60 credit hours in any area of study leading to a degree.

GSU commends all scholarship recipients on their academic achievements and wishes them continued success in their pursuits of higher learning.

Application forms for the Winter 2007 Grain Services Union's First Nations University of Canada Bursary are available from the FNUC Scholarship Committee. Please phone 306.790.5950 for more information. Deadline for receipt of applications is February 28.

Application forms for the 2007-2008 Grain Services Union Bill Gilbey Memorial Scholarship, Henry Lamontagne Scholarship, and Barry Melz Memorial Scholarship will be available in March 2007. Deadline for applications is July 1, 2007.

Grain Services Union

2334 McIntyre Street, Regina, SK S4P 2S2
Phone 306.522.6686 • Fax 306.565.3430 • Email gsu.regina@sasktel.net
Web page www.gsu.ca